

Welcome to:
A Nordic Heritage in the midst of rapid change

Wednesday Oct 24 8.30-11.45, Norrköping

1D: Ett nordiskt kulturarv i snabb förändring / A Nordic heritage in the midst of rapid change

Wednesday Oct 24 8.30-11.45

Organisers:

- Therese Sonehag (Riksantikvarieämbetet)

Speakers include:

- Espen Finstad, The Glacier Archaeology Program in Oppland Norway.
- Kjell-Åke Aronsson, Ájtte, Svenskt fjäll- och samemuseum.
- Anne Cathrine Flyen, Norsk Institutt for kulturminneforskning, NIKU.
- Marte Boro, Riksantikvaren.
- Johan Olofsson, Umeå Universitet.
- Andreas Hoffmann, ARCTIC CULTURE LAB.

Before we start:

Put your cell phone in silent mode, please.

In case of emergency.

Restrooms.

WiFi: Idg-guest
Password none

Twitter: #NOCCA

A Nordic Heritage in the midst of rapid change

8.30-8.40 Introduction

8.40-10.30 Presentations

10.30-10.45 Coffe break

11.00-12.00 Presentations

A Nordic Heritage in the midst of rapid change

Welcome!

Therese Sonehag,
Riksantikvarieämbetet

Anne Walkeapää, Sametinget

Myndighetsnätverket för Klimatanpassning, Sweden

A Nordic Heritage in the midst of rapid change

8.40-9.40

Espen Finstad,

The Glacier Archaeology Program in Oppland

Glacial Archaeology and the Future of Mountain Ice

Kjell-Åke Aronsson,

Åjtte, Svenskt fjäll- och
samemuseum

Reindeer bones melting out from snow and ice
gives new knowledge

A Nordic Heritage in the midst of rapid change

9.40-10.30

Anne Cathrine Flyen,
Norsk Institutt for kulturminneforskning,
NIKU

Warmer, wetter, wilder –
Arctic heritage

Marte Boro, Riksantikvaren,
Therese Sonehag,
Riksantikvarieämbetet

Adapt Northern Heritage

Coffe

10.30-10.45

A Nordic Heritage in the midst of rapid change

10.45-11.45

Johan Olofsson,
Umeå Universitet.

Can reindeer prevent unwanted effects of a warming climate on Arctic ecosystems?

Andreas Hoffmann,
Arctic Culture lab

Coastal culture and climate change effects